YOUTH VOICES

Barriers to Getting Help

- A fear of judgement, money, or general lack of trust in people around them.
- The fear of people treating you differently (babying you or getting some freedom taken away)

- It's difficult to find affordable and meaningful help for this problem.
- Having alot of work and or school. Not many opportunities to connect with like minded peers.

What Might Stop Youth From Attending Events

- Money, travel, lack of friends
- If it's boring or you have to pay

- It's a boring subject.
- Second emotions

Session Ideas from Youth

- I've been wanting to create a group of youth where we do nerf gun battles and board games and such

- Effective ways to create routines and how stick to them.

- Family problems

- If I could design a session, it would be about music. Music has always been about expressing your...
